DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 1-28 and 48-50 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species/subspecies combination, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 8/9/2005. In said filing Applicant elected to prosecute at this time the combination of Figures 1 and 6 (species and subspecies). Claims 29-47 and 51-74 stand.
2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 29-47, drawn to a method of controlling a catalytic combustion system by controlling the position of the of the combustion wave, classified in class 60, subclass 777.
 - II. Claims 51-64, drawn to a system for controlling a catalytic combustion system by controlling the position of the of the combustion wave, classified in class 60, subclass 723.
 - III. Claim 65-69, drawn to a catalytic combustion system comprising a sensor monitoring the combustion wave, classified in class 60, subclass 39.091.
 - IV. Claims 70-74, drawn to a method of modifying an operating line used to control a catalytic combustion burner comprising modifying the operating line based on a difference between a measured sensor signal and an expected sensor signal, classified in class 60, subclass 779.

3. Inventions III and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the invention of group III (the apparatus) can be used to monitor the safe operation of the system.

4. Inventions I and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention IV has separate utility such as a method for monitoring the safe operation of the system. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as monitoring the safe operation the combustion system. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

6. Inventions II and IV are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case invention IV (the method) can be used to monitor the safe operation of the system.

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. Applicant is required to elect between groups I and II together (method and apparatus controlling the position of the combustion wave) and groups III and IV together (method and apparatus for monitoring the safe operation).

8. A telephone call was made to Christopher Eide on 8/19/2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
